To US Dept of Justice:

I feel that the proposed agreement with Microsoft on the settling of the anti-trust case to be a total waste of taxpayers money. The judgment came down that Microsoft had performed some illegal acts and the agreement is a repudiation of that finding. The proposed settlement that was rejected before the judgment was stronger than the agreement that is now being discussed.

I do hope that the states continue their lawsuit and that Microsoft actually has to own up to it's uncompetitive practices that have reduced the competitiveness in the marketplace. Past practices of Microsoft are a guide to what the future of an unrestrained Microsoft will be. The entry of Microsoft into the video game console market shows how Microsoft is leveraging its monopoly position in the PC operating system market into another area to dominate.

This failure to hold Microsoft accountable for it's practices shows me that justice is simply a matter of how rich you are and how much you have donated to the current political party in office.
